(To be signed and returned to the Program Director immediately following the exam.)

NOTE: At the close of the oral examination, after the candidate has been excused, the members of the Committee should discuss the fitness of the candidate to receive the advanced degree. Each member of the Committee should then sign the statement recommending or opposing the granting of the degree.

A candidate must receive a pass from his or her advisor and no more than one fail (from the remaining committee members) in order to pass the final exam.
