

EMOTIONAL AND MENTAL WELLNESS SUPPORT RESOURCES FOR STUDENTS, RESIDENTS AND PROFESSIONALS

DISCOVER WELLNESS

Negative emotions such as stress, anxiety and worry, and even depression are natural byproducts of crises situations. Students, providers and professionals impacted by the surge of common needs associated with the COVID-19 pandemic are encouraged to maintain a positive focus on self-care as they also focus on providing quality care to others.

MENTAL HEALTH/EMOTIONAL VIRTUAL SUPPORT SERVICES

OSU-CHS Students/Faculty/Staff/Residents/Medical Providers who are interested in virtual mental health/emotional health support can contact OSU- CHS Counseling Services at:
