

TIP OF THE MONTH

Please refrain from using the Medical Supplies subcode (#3570) for supplies actually used in the laboratories or for other non-medical uses. For example, alcohol is generally a medical supply but if it is used in the lab as a solvent, then it would be considered a lab supply.