STUDENT CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

A student organization is defined as any recognized group/organization at the Oklahoma State University Center for Health Sciences (OSU-CHS) and the OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine at the Cherokee Nation (OSUCOM-CN), which is directed and controlled by students and whose programs and activities are well-matched with the University's mission, vision, and core values. The relationship between the University and recognized student organizations generates neither a contractual relationship between the University and the organization, nor a property right or expectancy in the organization of any sort. Duties performed and activities undertaken by recognized organizations are not those of the University.

As individual students are asked to uphold certain expectations, organizations and their officers are under obligation to the University and larger community to maintain high standards of ethics and conduct. This includes proper maintenance of financial records and sponsorship of events and activities that uphold the standards of the University. Any activities that violate the prohibitions contained within the Student Organization Code of Conduct may cause the charter of the organization to come under review by the Student Affairs Committee or the appropriate administrative conduct review.

CLUB REQUIREMENTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The following are requirements that apply to the operation of all OSU-CHS clubs:

- Recognized clubs may not exclude students from membership or participation based on race, gender, sex, or any other such criteria.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Social media are powerful communications and marketing tools that may have a significant impact on organizational and professional reputations. Because there is not always a clear distinction between personal voice and institutional voice, “Slack” has been deemed the official platform for social media communication for Student Life. Student organizations may request a “Slack channel” for their group from the Interim Dean of Student Life. Students under the supervision of the Student Life, shall not be permitted to use other social media platforms such as Facebook, Instagram, YouTube, Snapchat, etc., unless otherwise approved by the Assistant Dean of Student Life.

In an effort to promote continuity and professionalism, OSU-CHS Student Life does not maintain any other social media platforms. Student organizations that are interested in posting activities on official OSUCHS social media may submit a request with their information to the Coordinator of Student Life or designee who will work with University Marketing to post the information, if approved.

OSU-CHS Student Life expects conversations to follow the rules of polite discourse and asks that participants treat each other with respect. Posts that include the following will be removed and are subject to corrective action:

- Profanity and vulgar or abusive language
- Threats of physical or bodily harm
- Sensitive information (for example, information that could compromise public safety or intellectual property)
- Offensive terms

UNIVERSITY, COLLEGE AND CLUB LOGOS

The University has very specific graphic standards, and if you are creating a design for use on t- shirts, sweatshirts, water bottles, etc., you must obtain approval on these items prior to ordering. Please email your design to chs-campuslife@okstate.edu, and a Student Life Coordinator will contact you indicating approval of the design, or work with you to modify the design until it can be approved. All designs must be approved when using the University name or logo. Certain uses of the university logo must also be approved through the marketing department.

Requirements to Remember:

1. OSU-CHS or college logos may be used on club/class merchandise as long as you have approval to use an official logo and do not modify them in any way (e.g. removing the tagline or changing the dimensions).
2. You cannot design your own university or college logo. However, you may design a distinctive logo for your club or class (it should not “borrow” from the university/college logos).
3. We only work with approved vendors for university logos. Please contact the Office of Student Life for more information.
4. You may use the same design from year-to-year; however, each time you submit a student reimbursement form for merchandise using that design, you must still attach the original email indicating the design was approved (email the design for re-approval if you lose the original approval).
